

Important Information Regarding: Tropical Cyclone Alfred – March 2025

Issued: 4th March 2025

Background

On March 3rd 2025, the Australian Bureau of Meteorology have noted that Tropical Cyclone Alfred has intensified into a category 2 system and they anticipate it will turn toward South-East Queensland on the afternoon of March 4th 2025.

Heavy rain up to 700mm and gale-force winds of up to 120kph are predicted for the east coast of Australia between Byron Bay, NSW and Maryborough, QLD. South-east QLD and north-eastern NSW communities are being urged by local authorities to begin preparations for the cyclone.

At the time of issuing this alert, there are no reports of travel being significantly impacted and Brisbane's international and domestic airports report they are operating normally.

If you have been directly affected by this event and need medical assistance, please call our 24 hour emergency assistance team immediately on +61 2 8907 5662. We further urge you to pay close attention to the local media and emergency services.

Policy coverage:

For policies/trips with a Relevant Time before 4th March 2025

Subject to the benefits, terms, conditions, limits, sub-limits and exclusions contained in your Product Disclosure Statement (the "PDS") and our assessment of your claim, there may be provision to claim for the following expenses if you or your travel plans are directly affected:

- Medical Expenses
If you are on an "Inbound" Plan and have been injured during this event where you require immediate medical attention
- Additional Expenses
If you are already on your trip:
 - Additional accommodation (room rate only) and transportation expenses; if your travel is delayed for the required timeframes; up to the nominated limits as outlined in the Product Disclosure Statement
 - There is no cover if your existing travel plans are not directly affected
- Amendment or Cancellation Costs
If you have this cover on your policy:
 - The non-refundable portion of pre-paid, unused travel arrangements
 - Amendments made prior to departing on the Journey if the cost to rearrange does not exceed the amount it would have cost to cancel the trip outright
 - There is no cover available for any portions of your Journey that have been utilised

To submit your claim, please remember:

- To keep all itemised receipts for additional purchases or costs incurred
- Obtain a letter from the travel provider confirming the length and reason for delay
- The easiest way to lodge a claim is online via: <https://claims.travelinsurancepartners.com.au/>

Costs that are not covered by your policy

- Costs that are incurred where your travel is not directly affected
- Where alternate travel is at a higher fare class than originally booked
- Travel arrangements that have already been used
- Costs excluded or above the limits outlined in your PDS

For policies/trips with a Relevant Time from 4th March 2025

There is no cover for claims arising from this event under your policy as this is no longer deemed an unforeseeable event.

If you decide to change your travel plans, we encourage you to speak with your travel agent or transport provider as soon as possible to minimise your out of pocket expenses.

Important points regarding cover

- Your insurance policy does not cover you for events that had already occurred at the relevant time of your policy/trip
- Your insurance policy does not cover you for events that you knew were going to impact your travel at the relevant time of your policy/trip

Free Extension of Insurance

If the relevant time of your current trip pre-dates this travel advice and your travel is disrupted due to this event, impacting your ability to return home on your policy end date, your policy will freely extend until you are physically able to return home as soon as it becomes possible.

Important general advice

This information must be read in conjunction with the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) as certain terms, conditions, limits, sub-limits and exclusions apply. These are detailed in the PDS and in particular we draw your attention to 'The Benefits', 'Policy Conditions' and 'General Exclusions' sections of the PDS.
